

PLEASE

- be aware that you visit the Hurtwood entirely at your own risk, and you are responsible for any children or animals in your care. The Hurtwood is a natural environment with hidden hazards as well as man-made ditches and banks to prevent fly-tipping.
- observe forestry notices and beware of heavy machinery.
- as a courtesy to the local villages, use the Hurtwood car parks. They are free and open for your use, including, where suitable, with horse boxes or trailers.
- note that while we've taken every care over this website, we can't take responsibility for any errors or omissions.
